Dear Judge Castel,

As you are aware this firm represents the Defendants in the above-referenced action.

On September 20, 2007, Plaintiff Granger ("Plaintiff") served the Defendants Gill Abstract Corp. and Gill ("Defendants") with a motion for summary judgment pursuant to Rule 56(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Defendants are required to draft and serve their opposition to the motion by Monday, October 1, 2007. However, due to the fact that Dave Kissoon, the lead counsel in this litigation, is out of the country for until Wednesday, October 3, 2007, Defendants respectfully request that Your Honor grant the Defendants a two-week extension to allow opposing counsel to draft and serve opposition papers opposition.

If an extension is not granted, the Defendants will suffer severe hardship in meeting the October 1, 2007 deadline, as, Dave, who has intimate knowledge of the action, has limited computer and email access.

On several occasions we have tried to contact the Plaintiff to request an extension. However, our attempts proved to be futile, as we have not been able to get in contact with the Plaintiff.

In light of the severe hardship and since the Defendants have not previously made any such requests, Defendants respectfully request that Your Honor grant the Defendants the two-week extension.

Defendants time to respond to motion extended to October 15. Plaintiff's time to reply extended to October 23. SO ORDERED.
